All such tender / order-related documents issued by BHEL are to be treated with the same level of confidentiality that the receiver would bestow on their confidential documents. It is to be understood that downloading the documents from the web constitutes the acceptance of this confidentiality clause of BHEL. This provision does not apply to documents freely and is already in the public domain. In their own interest, If any Seller finds or becomes aware of any internal Communication of BHEL, in the public domain, it shall be the responsibility of such Seller to bring it to the notice of BHEL for clarification /immediate and appropriate action by BHEL. Any action or attempts taken by a Seller in leveraging such information shall be deemed as an unethical act and shall attract such extant provisions of BHEL's procurement policies.

(XX) Material Rejection and Returns

If the supplied materials are rejected at our stores, it shall be the responsibility of the supplier to collect the rejected goods from our stores, at their cost and risk, within a reasonable period of 30 days from the date of intimation of the rejection. The loading of the rejected goods at BHEL stores onto the vehicles placed by the supplier will be done by BHEL and such loading charges incurred along with the unloading charges incurred by BHEL for the unloading of the rejected goods will be to the account of the supplier. The unloading and loading charges incurred by BHEL will be raised on the supplier and the same shall be deducted from any of the pending bills of the supplier. In case there are no pending bills, then such amount incurred will be recovered from payments due for replacement goods to be supplied by the supplier. Or alternatively, such amounts shall be recovered from the payments due to the supplier, if any, for materials supplied to other BHEL Unit(s). If the supplier fails to lift the materials within the stipulated period of 30 days, either the goods will be booked on a freight-to-pay basis to the supplier through any one of the contracted carriers of BHEL and the documents shall be negotiated through bank, or BHEL shall dispose off the rejected materials on their own. The costs incurred for such disposal shall be to the account of the supplier. Where the goods are disposed off, by BHEL, the supplier shall have no claim on whatsoever proceeds that BHEL may get out of such action.

(XXI) Set Off clause

In the event any quantities are pending to be supplied against any purchase order by a seller, subject to the terms and conditions of the order, BHEL reserves the right to account the quantities of the same items supplied in a later order, by the Seller, against the unfulfilled previous order. In such cases of default in the complete execution of an order, BHEL, shall stand authorised at any time, and from time to time, without any prior notice to the Seller, to set off and apply any and all supplies made against the current order to the account of the previously issued purchase order of the same item.
